REPORT ON GENDER SENSITIZATION PROGRAMME 19-20

TITLE OF THE PROGRAM: SEMINAR ON HUMAN RIGHTS

RESOURCE PERSON: SRI L. SHIVAKUMAR, ADVOCATE

NO OF STUDENTS BENEFITTED: 65

The Equal Opportunity Cell conducted a Seminar on Human Rights for first year B. Com and BBA students on 3/10/2019. The Chief Guest, Sri.L. Shivakumar, addressed the students about Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). He started with the quote "Recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world" Preamble of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Sir averred that UDHR (Universal Declaration on Human Rights) consists of Preamble and 30 articles. These 30 Articles are further divided into 4 categories: General Articles (1 and 2), Civil and Political Rights (3 to 21), Economic, Social, Cultural Rights (22 to 28) and Concluding Provisions (29 and 30). He told that articles are the symbols of human rights and fundamental freedom which give us the right to live with dignity and to elevate our standard of living. The aim is to provide social security, adequate food and basic fundamental rights. He connected the provisions of UDHR to our constitution.

Sir, averred that the world's longest written constitution is Indian Constitution which was adopted on 26th of January 1950. The Fundamental rights, Directive principles of state policies, preamble of Indian Constitution have a close similarity with the context of UDHR in the forms of Articles. Indian Constitution generally preserves the values set down in the UDHR provisions. Fundamental rights and directive principles of state policy are discussed after 10th December 1948, i.e. the day when UDHR was adopted. This clearly shows the impact and influences of UDHR on the drafting of Indian Constitution.

Outcome: Students got thorough knowledge about UDHR and how it has been reflected in Our Constitution's PART III and PART IV.
