International Human Rights Day 2022-23

Human rights are not a privilege conferred by the government but they are every human being's entitlement by virtue of humanity. In order to bring awareness among the students about human rights, The Equal Opportunity Cell – Abhisama, organized Human Rights Day celebrations on 10th December 2022. In this event, the students were educated about how human rights came into force and how it should be exercised. Priyanka.G of final year B. Com, presented a video about the importance of human rights. Guest Speaker Smt.G.C. Shivamma, Senior Panel advocate, Karnataka State legal Services Authority, who addressed the gathering, appreciated the presentation done by Priyanka.G. She averred how human rights are the fundamental rights given to us as human beings. She spoke about how the bonded laborers; racial discrimination and the 2nd world war gave rise to the need for human rights and hence the declaration of human rights took place. She also talked about how human rights helped us to improve international relations. She brought awareness among the students about how to exercise the human rights. She mentioned a few helpline numbers available to promote human rights, like; 181(women helpline), 1098(child helpline), 112(emergency police). She was also kind enough to give the students her mobile number and asked them to contact her if need be. Finally, the event concluded with a quote - There's an end for every beginning, but the knowledge we gain will follow us throughout our lives.
