Career counselling on Chartered Accountancy course

Date: 16.05.2024

Speaker: Shareesh gadde

Venue: conference hall

Beneficiaries: First year B.com & BBA

Objectives:

*To provide a clear understanding of what the Chartered Accountancy profession entails, including the responsibilities, work environment, and career opportunities.

*To explain the various stages of the CA course (CPT, IPCC, and Final exams) and the professional qualifications required for each level.

Chartered Accountancy counselling plays a vital role in shaping the careers of students aspiring to become Chartered Accountants. With the course being demanding both academically and emotionally, the guidance provided through CA counselling helps students navigate the various stages, from understanding the profession to passing the exams and entering the workforce. By providing clarity, setting realistic expectations, offering stress management strategies, and helping students plan their career paths, CA counselling ensures that students are well-equipped to succeed in their journey and build a fulfilling career in the Chartered Accountancy profession.

Outcome

CA counselling ensured that students are well-prepared for the long-term journey, providing them with the tools, strategies, and mindset necessary for career success and personal fulfilment.

Career guidance on ACCA course

Date: 4-11-2023

Speaker: Mr Calvin

Venue: conference hall

Beneficiaries: First & second year B.com & BBA

Objectives:

To help students understand the diverse career opportunities available to ACCA professionals, including roles in auditing, financial management, taxation, consulting, corporate finance, and business advisory.

To explain the ACCA qualification structure, including the different levels (Applied Knowledge, Applied Skills, and Strategic Professional) and exams required at each stage.

Career guidance on the ACCA course is to help students make informed, confident decisions about their career path. By offering comprehensive advice on the qualification structure, career opportunities, practical experience, exam preparation, and professional development, career guidance ensures that students are well-equipped to succeed in their ACCA journey and future career. It helps them align their interests and strengths with the right career roles, set realistic expectations, and develop the necessary skills to become successful professionals in the accounting and finance fields.

Outcome

students were able to make well-informed decisions about whether ACCA is the right fit for them, understanding the scope of career options available, such as financial management, auditing, taxation, consultancy, and more.

Career guidance on Finance Role Readiness program

Date: 23-4-2024

Speaker: Mrs Sowjanya

Venue: conference hall

Beneficiaries: Final year B.com & BBA

Objectives:

- To bridge gap between academics and industry in terms of readiness of participants for various job roles.
- Provides inputs to acquire articulation skills of finance topics that help in placement process as well as job deliverables.

Finance Role Readiness program (FRRP) is a program which prepares students for specific job roles like analyst, consultant, executive, associate, assistant, intern, trainee etc. The speaker explained the Finance Role Readiness Program is a crucial initiative designed to prepare participants for successful careers in finance. It provides a comprehensive blend of technical skills, professional development, practical experience, and career guidance, all aimed at making participants job-ready for various finance roles. By participating in this program, individuals gain the confidence, competence, and career clarity needed to succeed in the competitive finance job market. The program not only enhances employability but also equips students with the mindset and resources required to thrive in their chosen finance careers.

1. Improved Job Readiness

- Students were equipped with the technical skills and professional behaviours required to perform effectively in a wide range of finance roles.
- The program ensures that participants are job-ready from day one, reducing the gap between theory and practice.

2. Stronger Professional Profile

- Students had a better understanding of the finance industry and their specific career goals, allowing them to make informed decisions about job opportunities and career paths.
- The program's focus on practical experience, industry-relevant tools, and soft skills enhances students' resumes and prepares them for competitive recruitment processes.
